

Dana Bolton

RISK MANAGEMENT & COMPLIANCE

Dana Bolton is a seasoned corporate lawyer and risk manager. From 1995 to 2012, Dana was at Marsh & McLennan Companies (“MMC”), a global professional services firm. At MMC, Dana was General Counsel and Chief Risk Officer of Oliver Wyman Group, the global management and economic consulting businesses of MMC. Dana was the lead lawyer on 20 acquisitions and numerous strategic hires that helped grow the Oliver Wyman business from $300 million to $1.5 billion in annual revenues. Before MMC, Dana practiced corporate finance and mergers & acquisitions law in New York City with Cahill Gordon and Coudert Brothers. Dana received his law degree from Washington & Lee University and his undergraduate degree from Davidson College.

Dana is now a US Sailing Level 3 Sailing Instructor, Board of Directors chair, Innovation and Implementation Committee chair and volunteer at the Lake Champlain Community Sailing Center (“CSC”), a community-based non-profit providing lake access and educational programs for over 8,000 people annually. Dana received the 2016 US Sailing Community Sailing Volunteer of the Year Award for his exemplary work in promoting community sailing. Dana is also an experienced offshore sailor and was a watch captain on a 2015 Atlantic crossing and several offshore deliveries (7,000 offshore sailing miles in total).

Dana also serves as a youth mentor with Spectrum Health & Family Services, a non-profit based in Burlington, Vermont. Spectrum’s mission is to empower teenagers, young adults, and their families to make and sustain positive changes through prevention, intervention, and life skills services. Spectrum serves 2,000 teenagers, young adults and their families annually.
